LOSE THREE GAMES.

Home Team Runs in Hard Luck in Ball Games During the Past Week.

The local baseball team played in rather hard luck the past week, having lost three games in succession, the first two being with Berlin and the last one with Mauston.

The first game with Berlin was played on Thursday, and the score was 2 to 0, Berlin getting one run in the sixth and one in the eighth inning. Baudelin was the first man at bat for the home team, and he got a hit off the Berlin pitcher, and he was the only one that did so during the game. Lisse, the pitcher for the Berlin team, struck out thirteen men and Helzel five. The game was said to be a good one and those who saw it were well pleased with the game that the locals put up, even though they did not win. Following is the record from the Berlin Journal:

Berlin 2, Grand Rapids 0.

In what was the best game of the season, the Berlin Brewers defeated the Grand Rapids team in a game of baseball at the fair grounds, Thursday morning, by a score of 2 to 0. The game was fast, clean and a No. 1 all the way through and no one could wish to witness a better game.

Lisse was in the box for the locals and threw the game of his life, allowing but one hit. The team gave him excellent support. Grand Rapids played league ball, their infield being especially fast. Features of the game were field work by Weekler of Grand Rapids and fast work by fielders on both teams.

Schmidt umpired grand ball and his decisions met with approval. The attendance was 1,500. Score by innings and summary: Berlin—0 0 0 0 1 0 1—2. Grand Rapids—0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0.

Hits off Lisse: 1; off Helzel, 2. Struck out by Lisse, 13; Helzel, 5.

Grand Rapids 3, Berlin 4.

The second game with the same team was played on Friday and this resulted in another victory for the Berlin. Marsh pitched for the Berlin team on Friday and struck out eleven men and Barlow pitched for the home team and struck out three. The runs in this game were made by Martenson, Weekler, and Dulin. This was also a good game and the spectators stated that they had never seen anything better by amateurs in that section of the country.

Grand Rapids 3, Mauston 4.

This was another game where the home team came out one run behind the money, and although the boys played a good game it was not quite good enough to win. This game was played on Sunday, the game that was to have been played here between Wausau and the locals having been cancelled. The three runs in this game were made by Barlow, Powell and Martenson. Helzel and McConnell were the battery for the home team.

Mauston will play the home team in this city next Sunday afternoon.

Elks Beat K. Ps.

The K. P. baseball team from Wausau came to this city on Thursday and played a game with the Elks, which resulted in a victory for the local team by a score of 9 to 8. It looked during the fore part of the game as if neither team had ever seen a baseball before, as each man made an error whenever it was possible to do so. Later on they began to play, however, and did some fair ball playing for amateur teams.

In the evening the visitors were entertained at a smoker in the Elks hall.

Stock Fair Tuesday.

Next Tuesday, September 11, is the date for the monthly stock fair, which will be held on the market square on the east side. An effort is being made to have this event even better than the ones that have gone before, and with this idea in mind, a number of prizes have been secured from the merchants which are as follows:

To the farmer bringing in the largest spring chickens, a fine oil painting; Cohen Bros. Dept. store. To the farmer bringing to town the largest number of women and unloading them in front of my store, his choice of any $2.50 shoe in the store. J. T. Schumacher.

To the mother bringing to my store the largest number of her own children, one percale dressing sack suit. J. T. Schumacher.

For the best calf, 50c beef roast. Owen Love.

For the best sheep at the fair, 50c worth sausage. Link & Werle.

To the farmer fetching to Rowland's store the sack of largest sized potatoes, one bushel large apples. Geo. T. Rowland & Sons.

To the farmer bringing in the largest number of our empty kegs (3/4 & 1/2 s.), a 1/2 keg of beer. Grand Rapids Brewing Co.

Advertising Extraordinary.

Milwaukee Free Press—"One of the most unique advertising schemes I have come across in many years of travel all through the country I saw up in Grand Rapids, Wis., the other day, and it certainly was a winner," said J. A. McMorphy, Oakfield, Wis., at the Schlitz hotel.

"There's a jeweler up in Grand Rapids by the name of A. P. Hazy, and in his show window he has placed a long, narrow trough filled with water. In this trough are seven mud turtles, all about the same size, three or four inches across the shell. On each shell is one of the letters of Mr. Hazy's name. Now the jeweler offers a prize of $20 to any one, man, woman, or child, who will find the seven turtles in time so as to spell his name. It's the greatest scheme of its kind that ever happened."

"There's a crowd in front of the window all the time, each person looking for that $20. Some of the people stand there from morning until night expecting every minute that the turtles will get in the right position and untile him to the reward. I stood there for about an hour myself the other day, not looking for the $20 but interested in the swimming of the turtles and the way in which the crowd watched them. Really, it's much more interesting than any puzzle ever put before the public."

"One naturally expects really new and original things to originate in the big cities, yet there never was a more novel idea than this and it's getting the money, for the jeweler changes his window display frequently and the people are bound to look at it."

Alleged Forger Breaks Jail.

Manistique, Mich., Aug. 29.—If J. Van Auker, James Vallier and Joe Gaseuore saved their way to liberty, Van Auker was charged with forgery. Vallier was in for horse stealing and Gaseuore for assault with intent to do bodily harm. Van Auker operated in Manistique and other Wisconsin cities.

Van Auker is the man who passed the forged check on Lundford Whitney some time ago and who was being held for several similar offenses.

Later—Since the above was written Van Auker has again been apprehended. It would seem that the man is better at committing mistakes than he is at keeping out of jail after he has committed them.

A dispatch from Chicago has the following to say concerning Van Auker: "With considerable show of reason—of leading the most exciting life in America, arrived in Chicago two days ago, and was arrested two days afterward. While the police are holding him on the charge of passing scores of worthless checks on down town hotels, they are investigating four more serious charges against him. Van Auker is wanted in Manitowish Green Bay and many other Wisconsin cities on forgery charges. Van Auker's arrest will add another tinge to his diary of 'thrills,' as chance alone saved his life when he resisted Detective John Flynn, who captured him. The detective had been sent to find Van Auker on complaint of his latter's wife, Mrs. Van Auker, said she feared he would kill her. She told the detective to be careful of the cannon he carried. Detective Flynn stumbled upon Van Auker by chance. Van Auker, however, did not contemplate peacefully submitting to arrest, so made a rush for his coat, which contained a revolver. Flynn endeavored to fire into the air to frighten the man into submission, but in the excitement of the moment Van Auker got directly in front of the weapon, and the bullet pierced his coat. After a short struggle he submitted peacefully to arrest and accompanied the detective."

Just because he has chanced to have several brushes with the police Van Auker does not wish it to be understood that he ignores the finer things of this life. He modestly admits that he is the "best dresser" in America. When his attention was called to the fact that his gloves and his hose had not been selected with a view to a harmonious color scheme he was forced to admit that he absent mindedly had worn somebody's else hose.

Hardly had he arrived in the city than he began to make plans to replenish his wardrobe. Not being well supplied with money he drew a check for $200, picked the first name he saw in the directory, signed it, it is said, and secured funds on it at the Grand Pacific hotel. He cashed checks for larger and smaller amounts at nearly every down town hotel, the police say.

NOTICE.

—As I am going to Minneapolis on Saturday I will not be in the city from the first until the tenth of September. Those who are contemplating having me do work for them should time their appointments accordingly. O. P. Menzel

Ball Game Tuesday.

A game of baseball has been arranged for next Tuesday, September 11th, on which date the Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls league team will be here to play the local boys. If the home team plays in the form it has during the past week, a good game may be looked for.

About the Proper Thing.

A. H. Stango has started the erection of a club house at Merrill which will be for the use of the company's employees and other persons who will observe the rules of the place. The building will be 54x104 feet, three stories high and will contain a gymnasium, shower baths, bowling alleys, running track, dance floor, reading and lounging rooms, as well as a kitchen, billiard and card rooms. It will be run on the plan of Y. M. C. A. rooms with the religious features eliminated.

—Harry Shannon's powerful comedy drama, "The Banker's Child," will be presented at the Grand Opera House for one night only, Saturday Sept. 8th. The story of the play is captivates, with a plot of intense interest, closing at the end of each act with a climax of wonderful power. The comedy is bright and sparkling; the action terse, vivid and rapid. It is a play that touches the great chord of sympathy. Some very clever singing and dancing specialties will be introduced.

Irene, the three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stoll Jagodzinski, died Tuesday morning. The little one was buried this morning from the Polish Catholic church.

A REAL HOLDUP.

Masked Men Enter the Home of Mrs. McCoslin and Ter-rify Woman.

This city was the scene of a real holdup on Sunday evening, when two masked men entered the home of Mrs. McCoslin on the west side, and holding a revolver at the woman's head, demanded that she deliver over the money in her possession. They secured $5.50, and after looking about the house and finding nothing that suited their fancy, departed. Mrs. McCoslin's story of the robbery is to the effect that she was alone in the house at the time of robbery, her boy having left the house a short time before and coming up town. She was sitting at the table when she heard the door close behind her, and turning round to see who had entered the room she was looking into the muzzle of a revolver in the hands of a man who wore a mask over a part of his face. He demanded that she hand over her money, and upon her telling him that she had no money, he told her that he knew better, that she had got some money Friday from her husband, who is employed at Foulmawick. While one man held the revolver at her head to prevent an outcry the other bargained the money and found what was left of what had been sent her. He then searched other places about the house and not finding anything more of value, the two men backed out of the door and disappeared.

The holdup occurred about half past seven in the evening, but the woman was so startled by what she had gone thru that she did not give the alarm until her boy came home, and by that time the men had had a chance to get some distance away. The matter was reported to the police, and they made every effort possible to find the two men, but up to the present time have had no information as to their whereabouts.

It is their opinion that the men are some that have been around Tamahawk where the woman's husband has been at work, otherwise it would have been possible for them to have been so well informed as to the fact of her receiving money and when it was received.

Made Fair Bats.

A large number of chicken hunters from this city were in the field Saturday morning to try their hand at bringing down the fast flying prairie chickens. While the bags made were none of them extraordinary large, everybody seemed to be well satisfied with the sport.

There are more birds there there were last season, but there is nothing like the number there has been in years gone by.

It is the consensus of opinion among the hunters in this locality that there should be no open season in Wood and surrounding counties for a year or two and thus allow the birds to multiply and recover in numbers. Nearly all the counties in the state are now closed the entire year for chickens, which drives a large number of hunters into Wood and the adjacent counties if they want to do any hunting of this sort. They feel that if there is not some protection of this sort that it will only be a few years before the prairie chicken in this neighborhood will be practically extinct.

Simons-Hoskinson.

Mrs. Hoskinson received a telegram Sunday morning announcing the marriage of her daughter Grace to Mr. V. D. Simons, which occurred in Chicago, Saturday at 6 p. m., at Grace church. The only witnesses to the ceremony were Mrs. Arthur Ramsay, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Platt. Mr. and Mrs. Simons will arrive in the city in a few days and make their home here.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in this city, the bride being the daughter of Mr. Geo. Hoskinson, and a most estimable young lady, while the groom is the manager of the Grand Rapids Pulp and Paper company's plant at Biron. The Tribune wishes their many friends in extending congratulations and wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Who Deposits Your MONEY?

This is a very important question. SOME ONE deposits pretty much all the money in circulation. If you spend all you earn some one else saves a part of it and deposits it in the bank.

The difference is, THEY own the bank book and THEY draw the interest.

Our Savings Department makes it easy to save. Ask us about it.

Looking for Large Game.

A dispatch from Neeshah says: Three hunters which escaped from Ringling Bros., circus while the cages were being loaded on trains are terrorizing the surrounding country. Poses from all the towns in the neighborhood are searching for the animals, which are reported to have killed about twenty head of cattle, but only one of the animals has been shot. It was found prowling in the barnyard of Peter R. Stivers, three miles south of here, by Henry Samson of Arkdale. The animal had killed one cow and was cranking for a spring at another when discovered.

Children are being kept in the houses and women are afraid to venture out at night. Every house and barn in which people or animals are sheltered is doubly locked and barricaded while the men go about armed.

Publishing Tax Schedules.

In one county out in Colorado they tried publishing tax schedules, that is, a list of each man's property with the valuation after it, and it is stated that it had a good effect on the tax payers, as it showed to the public just what each man was listed at, and gave his neighbors a chance to size up the entire tax roll and judge for themselves whether a man was being assessed at the proper valuation. The scheme is said to have worked so well that they are trying to pass a law out there to compel the tax schedules to be published each year.

Picking Cranberries.

Cranberry picking commenced on several of the marshes in the vicinity on Monday and others will begin the latter part of the week. Only small portions of the berries are ripe enough for harvesting at this time. The crop promises to be good.

County Clerk Davis has issued 400 hunting licenses, which would indicate a fairly good demand.

September Will Be Stormy Month.

A regular storm period is central on September the 1st, extending up to the 4. The monthly promises to come in with areas of high temperatures, low barometer and storms making their transit from west to east.

A regular storm period is central on the 12 and covers the 10 to the 15. This period is co-incident with the September magnetic crisis, which earth passes annually from September 9 to the 15.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 17, 18 and 19. This period will carry the earth to the center of its Autumnal Equinox. It will also inaugurate a series of storms and changes, on land and sea, that will prove clear lines of demarcation between our summer and autumn.

A regular storm period runs from the 22 to 26, being affected by mercury, earth and the entering by the vernal period. From Sunday the 22 to Wednesday the 26 is a time of maximum storm probability. Look for a commingling of tropical and boreal conditions, being rain, wind and thunder in some parts, with possible sleet and early signs of snow in the far north. A reactionary disturbance is central on the 29 to 30, causing low barometer and general change to storm conditions as September goes out.

"One naturally expects really new and original things to originate in the big cities, yet there never was a more novel idea than this and it's getting the money, for the jeweler changes his window display frequently and the people are bound to look at it."

Alleged Forger Breaks Jail.

Manitowish, Mich., Aug. 30.—H. Van Aukon, James Vallier and Joe Gasemore saved their way to Liberty. Van Aukon was charged with forgery, Vallier was in for horse stealing and Gasemore for assault with intent to do bodily harm. Van Aukon escaped in Manitowish and other Wisconsin cities.

Van Aukon is the man who passed the forged check on Lundford Whitey some time ago and who was being held for several similar offenses. Later—Since the above was written Van Aukon has again been apprehended. It would seem that the man is better at committing mistakes after he has committed them.

A dispatch from Chicago has the following to say concerning Van Aukon: Harry Ames Van Aukon, who boasts—with considerable show of reason—of leading the most exciting life in America, arrived in Chicago two days ago, and was arrested two days afterward. While the police are holding him on the charge of passing scores of worthless checks on down town hotels, they are investigating far more serious charges against him.

Van Aukon is wanted in Manitowish, Green Bay and many other Wisconsin cities on forgery charges. Van Aukon's arrest will add another incident to his history of thrills, as chance alone saved his life when he resisted Detective John Flynn who captured him. The detective had been sent to find Van Aukon on complaint of the latter's wife. Mrs. Van Aukon said she feared he would kill her. She told the detective to be careful of the canons he carried. Detective Flynn stumbled upon Van Aukon by chance. Van Aukon, however, did not contemplate peacefully submitting to arrest, so made a rush for his coat, which contained a revolver. Flynn endeavored to fire into the air to frighten the man into submission, but in the excitement of the moment Van Aukon got directly in front of the weapon, and the bullet pierced his coat. After a short struggle he submitted peacefully to arrest and accompanied the detective.

Just because he has chances to have several brushes with the police Van Aukon does not wish it to be understood that he ignores the finer things of this life. He modestly admits that he is the "best dresser" in America. When his attention was called to the fact that his gloves and his hose had not been selected with a view to a harmonious color scheme he was forced to admit that he absent-mindedly had worn somebody's else hose.

Hardly had he arrived in the city than he began to make plans to replenish his wardrobe. Not being well supplied with money he drew a check for $300, picked the first name he saw in the directory, signed it, it is said, and secured funds on it at the Grand Pacific hotel. He cashed checks for larger and smaller amounts at nearly every down town hotel, the police say.

NOTICE.

—As I am going to Minneapolis on Saturday I will not be in the city from the first until the tenth of September. Those who are contemplating having me do work for them should time their appointments accordingly.

Ball Game Tuesday.

A game of baseball has been arranged for next Tuesday, September 11th, on which date the Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls league team will be here to play the local boys. If the home team plays in the form it has during the past week, a good game may be looked for.

An Inside Designer.

One of the features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure. It is the sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Daily Drug & Jewelry Co.

A REAL HOLDUP.

Masked Men Enter the Home of Mrs. McCoslin and Terribly Woman.

This city was the scene of a real holdup on Sunday evening, when two masked men entered the home of Mrs. McCoslin on the west side, and holding a revolver at the woman's head, demanded that she deliver over the money in her possession. They secured $5.00, and after looking about the house and finding nothing more that suited their fancy, departed.

Mrs. McCoslin's story of the robbery is to the effect that she was alone in the house at the time of robbery, but boy having left the house a short time before and gone up town. She heard the door close behind her, and turning round to see who had entered the room she was looking into the muzzle of a revolver in the hands of a man who wore a mask over a part of his face. He demanded that she hand over her money, and upon her telling him that she had no money, he told her that he knew better, that she had got some money Friday from her husband, who is employed at Tomahawk. While one man held the revolver at her head to prevent an outcry the other burglar ransacked the bureau and found what was left of what had been sent her. He then searched other places about the house and not finding anything more of value, the two men backed out of the door and two men backed out of the door and two men backed out of the door.

The holdup occurred about half past seven in the evening, but the woman was so startled by what she had gone through that she did not give the alarm until her boy came home, and by that time the men had had a chance to get some distance away. The matter was reported to the police, and they made every effort possible to find the two men, but up to the present time have had no information as to their whereabouts.

It is the opinion that the men are some that have been around Tomahawk where the woman's husband has been at work, otherwise it would not have been possible for them to have been so well informed as to the fact of her receiving money and when it was received.

Made Fair Boys.

A large number of chicken hunters from this city were in the field Saturday morning to try their hand at bringing down the festive prairie chicken. While the boys made were none of them extraordinary large, everybody seemed to be well satisfied with the sport.

There are more birds than there were last season, but there is nothing like the number there has been in years gone by.

It is the consensus of opinion among the hunters in this locality that there should be no open season in Wood and surrounding counties for a year or two and thus allow the birds to multiply.

Nearly all the counties in the state are now closed the entire year for chickens, which drives a large number of hunters into Wood and the adjacent counties if they want to do any hunting of this sort. They feel that if there is not some protection of this sort that it will only be a few years before the prairie chicken in this neighborhood will be practically extinct.

Simons-Hoskinson.

Mrs. Hoskinson received a telegram Sunday morning announcing the marriage of her daughter Grace to Mr. V. D. Simons, which occurred in Chicago, Saturday at 6 p. m., at Grace church. The only witnesses to the ceremony were Mrs. Arthur Ramsey, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Platt.

Mr. and Mrs. Simons will arrive in the city in a few days and make their home here.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in this city, the bride being the daughter of Mrs. Geo. Hoskinson, and a most estimable young lady, while the groom is the manager of the Grand Rapids Pulp and Paper company's plant at Biron. The Tribune wishes their many friends in extending congratulations and wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

About the Proper Thing.

A. H. Stange has started the erection of a club house at Merrill which will be for the use of the company's employees and other persons who will observe the rules of the place. The building will be 54x104 feet, three stories high and will contain a gymnasium, shower bath, bowling alley, running track, dance floor, reading and lounging rooms, as well as a kitchen, billiard and card room.

It will be run on the plan of Y. M. C. A. rooms with the religious features eliminated.

—Harry Shannon's powerful comedy drama, "The Banker's Child," will be presented at the Grand Opera House for one night only, Saturday Sept. 8th. The story of the play is captivating, with a plot of intense interest, closing at the end of each act with a climax of wonderful power. The comedy is bright and sparkling; the action terse, vivid and rapid. It is a play that touches the great chord of sympathy. Some very clever singing and dancing specialties will be introduced.

Irene, the three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stoll Jagodzinski, died Tuesday morning. The little one was buried this morning from the Polish Catholic church.

Looking for Large Game.

A dispatch from Needah says: "Three boys who escaped from Ringling Bros. arena while the cages were being loaded on trains are terrorizing the surrounding country. Poachers from all the towns in the neighborhood are searching for the animals, which are reported to have killed about twenty head of cattle, but only one of the animals has been shot. It was found prowling in the barnyard of Peter H. Stivers, three miles south of here, by Henry Sannom of Arkhale. The animal had killed one cow and was crouching for a spring at another when discovered."

Children are being kept in the houses and women are afraid to venture out at night. Every house and barn in which people or animals are sheltered is doubly locked and bar cleaned while the men go about armed.

Publishing Tax Schedules.

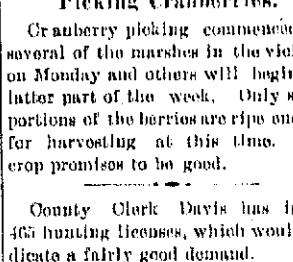

In one county out in Colorado they had publishing tax schedules, that is, a list of each man's property with the valuation after it, and it is stated that it had a good effect on the taxpayers, as it showed to the public just what each man was listed at, and gave his neighbors a chance to size up the entire tax roll and judge for themselves whether a man was being assessed at the proper valuation. The scheme is said to have worked so well that they are trying to pass a law out there to compel the tax schedules to be published each year.

Picking Cranberries.

Cranberry picking commenced on several of the marshes in the vicinity on Monday and others will begin the latter part of the week. Only small portions of the berries are ripe enough for harvesting at this time. The crop promises to be good.
